In Campus Training Programme on ‘Sahakar Se Samridhhi- Production & Marketing Strategies for Cooperatives’

(18 to 20 September 2024)

Introduction:

The pace of Cooperative movement in India has been galvanized with various measures introduced by GoI in the recent past, beginning with formation of the Ministry of Cooperation. Strengthening the Co-operative institutions by enabling them to meet credit plus requirements of members by diversifying their business is the need of the hour. It is envisaged that Co-operatives can now play a major role in physical and financial supply chain of commodities by working as spokes to the rural agricultural markets. With adoption of appropriate production and marketing strategies, and investment in post-harvest infrastructure, farmers would be able to reduce post-harvest losses and increase value realization for their produce. In this context, BIRD, Mangaluru proposes to conduct the training programme on ‘Sahakar Se Samridhhi – Production & Marketing Strategies for Cooperatives’ to enable Co-operatives to function as viable profit centres.

Objectives: By the end of the programme, the participants would be able to:-

- ❖ Explain the major initiatives of Ministry of Cooperation for strengthening Co-operatives
- ❖ Appreciate the role of PACS as an essential part of the Agricultural Value Chain
- ❖ Explain the new opportunities available to PACS to diversify their business portfolio
- ❖ Formulate a strategy to achieve its potential in production and marketing of agricultural products
