In Campus Training Programme on Regulatory Compliances in Investment and Treasury Management (28 to 30 July 2025)

Introduction:

Investment is a core activity for all banks, essential for statutory maintenance of liquidity as well as an important source of revenue and profit. It requires highly skilled officials in the treasury function who understand the regulatory aspects well, so as to remain in compliance with banking regulations and other relevant legislation at all times. The whole process of treasury or liquidity management ensures that businesses have enough liquidity to meet any short-term goals. Other than this, it also provides a detailed analysis of the assets and liabilities of a business.

Considering these aspects, a three days' in-campus training programme on Regulatory Compliances in Investment and Treasury Management for RCBs and RRBs is being conducted by BIRD, Mangaluru from 28 to 30 July 2025.
