In Campus Training on Management Development Programme for Cooperative Banks

(21 to 23 May 2024)

Introduction: In the competitive environment, banks face several challenges and one of the major challenges is to equip their managers adequately with necessary soft skills so as to be effective in their roles to the benefit of their organisations. Managing change, dealing with customers, working in team, managing other personnel besides managing themselves are the most important skills the bank officers, more particularly that the bank managers need in the changing scenario. Keeping this in view, BIRD Mangaluru has designed a three days' training programme which will focus on all relevant areas related to management development. It is expected that the programme will help the personnel particularly the middle level officials in the controlling offices and the branch managers to handle the situations efficiently and help the banks in improving the business and increase profitability.

Objectives: By the end of the programme, the participants would be able to:-

- ❖ Describe the changing banking scenario.
- ❖ Explain the trends of change and ways of managing change.
- ❖ Explain the concepts and importance of time management, effective communication and presentation skills.
- ❖ Explain need, rationale and importance of networking for business purposes.
- ❖ List out the leadership qualities and explain essence of motivation.
- ❖ Describe importance of interpersonal relations and knowing self
- ❖ Explain need for diversified portfolio for optimization of returns.
- ❖ Describe conflict resolution and working in teams.
- ❖ Explain how to manage stress and emotions.
- ❖ Assessment of potential for Branch and prepare a plan for improving the profitability of Bank.

Programme Director: Shri K Satheesan, DGM/FM, BIRD, Mangaluru.
