PROGRAMME SPONSORED BY NABARD

In Campus Exposure Programme for Officers of RFIs of North, Eastern and North-Eastern Regions

(23 to 25 November 2026)

Introduction:

Rural Financial Institutions (RFIs) play a vital role in promoting financial inclusion and rural development through support to Farmer Producer Organizations (FPOs/FPCs), Self-Help Groups (SHGs), Joint Liability Groups (JLGs), etc,. This three-day in-house programme is designed for officers of Cooperative Banks, Cooperative Departments, and Regional Rural Banks (RRBs) from North, East, and North-Eastern India to enhance their understanding of developmental banking and group-based financing models.

The programme combines interactive classroom sessions with extensive field visits, providing participants firsthand exposure to successful FPOs/FPCs, Watershed and Tribal Development projects, SHGs/JLGs, and best practices adopted by RFIs. It also covers the BF/BC model, ICT-enabled financial inclusion, NPCI-led payment systems, and internal controls in banks, thereby equipping participants with practical insights for promoting inclusive and sustainable rural finance.
